

TH Sound Silly Sentences & Tongue Twisters

Here's a list of 20 easy silly sentences packed with "voiced Th" (/ð/) sounds to make at home carryover practice fun and help generalise into everyday language:

1. This dog loves that thing.
2. They bathed the three brothers.
3. That feather tickles their nose.
4. Those clothes are rather thin.
5. The other brother loves this.
6. These weather maps bother them.
7. They gather those brown thistles.
8. This bothersome bat bothers them.
9. Their mother gathers the clothes.
10. That brother is rather tall.
11. The weather today feels thick.
12. They smothered the fire together.
13. This bother won't last forever.
14. That bat loves the cave.
15. Those feathers gather near the tree.
16. They bathed their baby brother.
17. Their mother baked the bread.
18. The other brother loves math.
19. These brothers wrestle the others.
20. Those teeth feel rather sharp.

Here's a list of 20 harder silly sentences packed with "voiced Th" (/ð/) sounds to make at home carryover practice fun and help generalise into everyday language:

1. Their brother gathers feathers for hats.
2. They bathed the baby together last night.
3. These weather patterns bother the sailors.
4. Those three brothers smothered their laughter.
5. That other brother loves their mother's soup.
6. They gathered the clothes in the basket.
7. This weather feels bothersome in November.
8. The brothers saw their mother's feather hat.
9. These weather changes bother the animals.
10. They rather enjoy gathering feathers for crafts.
11. Their mother loves the smooth leather jacket.
12. The other brothers wrestle together after dinner.
13. That feather pillow bothers their brother's head.
14. They smother the fire with their blanket.
15. Those three brothers gather feathers every Thursday.
16. The leather coat bothers their itchy necks.
17. These brothers gather together in their yard.
18. Their mother bakes the birthday cake tomorrow.
19. This bothersome weather ruined their outdoor plans.
20. That other feather floats near the river.

Here's a list of 20 easy silly sentences packed with "voiceless Th" (/θ/) sounds to make at home carryover practice fun and help generalise into everyday language:

1. Thin thieves think through things.
2. Throw three thick threads there.
3. Theo thought the thorn tickled.
4. Thirty thick thistles grew together.
5. The bath is thick with bubbles.
6. Throw the thin cloth here.
7. The thorny path is rough.
8. Thirsty Theo thought through everything.
9. Thirty-three thieves threw thin things.
10. Thank Theo for the thick broth.
11. The thin thief threw threads.
12. Think of three thick thorns.
13. The third bath was thrilling.
14. Theo thought thirty things quickly.
15. Thin thieves thrive in thick fog.
16. Three thorns scratched Theo's thumb.
17. The thirsty thief thanked Theo.
18. Throw the thickest thread there.
19. Thirty-three thimbles were thoroughly cleaned.
20. Theo thinks this path is thrilling.

Here's a list of 20 harder silly sentences packed with "voiceless Th" (/θ/) sounds to make at home carryover practice fun and help generalise into everyday language:

1. Thirty-three thieves thought the path was thick.
2. The thin thief threw thirty-three things.
3. Those thirty thistles thrive in thick soil.
4. The thick cloth slipped through the hole.
5. Think of thirty-three thick thorns today.
6. That thick cloth blocked the thin threads.
7. The third thief thought the thing through.
8. Theo threw three thin things together.
9. Thirty-thick thistles grew through the soil.
10. That thin path leads through thick thorns.
11. Three thieves thought the thick trees through.
12. They threw thirty-three thick stones there.
13. Those three thick threads tangled together.
14. The thick broth helped the thirsty thieves.
15. Theo thought the thick path was tricky.
16. That thin thread slipped through the hole.
17. The thin thief thought the thing through.
18. The thick path led through the thorns.
19. Thirty-three thick stones were thrown there.
20. Those thick thistles were tough to cut.